In the 1970s, Jim and Eunice helped to establish a church plant, later known as Gibson Christian Reformed Church. There Jim served as an elder, Sunday school teacher, superintendent, and head counselor of the very active Calvinist Cadets Corps boys' program. He found deep satisfaction in mentoring men and boys from many walks of life. He did this at Gibson, the Dunes Correctional Facility, and the Muskegon Correctional Facility. During retirement, Jim also volunteered at the City Mission and Holland Hospital. He and Eunice were strong supporters of Christian education and other organizations dear to their hearts.
