“ We can hardly believe that both of you are gone. Even though you are gone to be with Jesus, we and many others miss you here. Jim, your big smile and laugh and Linda's beautiful smile caught my attention from the first time that I met you here in Oaxaca, Mexico, in the 1980s--and kept showing your love to me and, later, us, as we visited you and stayed with you over the years. Your special ways and love of Jesus touched many lives and we thank God for your lives. "Well done, good and faithful servants."

“ Jim was the greatest guy! He always had a smile and a kind word. Jim and Linda were a wonderful example of a Christian marriage. Hold on to the memories and visit them often. Will be thinking of and praying for the family as you go through this difficult season. Take care...

“ Grandma and Grandpa Weber are a great example of what a marriage and love could be. Their home (which grandpa built) will forever be my safe place. Together they planted each tree. Sunday's were full of cousins, cards, pass the pigs, aunt's and uncles, lunch after church, homemade bread, yoyo dolls from the bizarre, dried apples, STAY OUT OF THE CREEK and most importantly Grandma and Grandpa Weber. I will miss those days, but my heart is full. Grandpa Love Ya!

“ Such a wonderful smile was always there for his family and friends. Such a kind person and loved his family so very well. I am sending my deepest condolences to Jamie and her whole family. I know the Lord lights a path for someone as faithful as your dad and grandfather. May God's Peace be evident in these days. Kari Miller

“ My sincere condolences to Linda and all the kids. Jim and Linda were my youth leaders many years ago, and I have such fond memories of them, their kids, and the way they lived their faith every day. As well as all the years spend worshipping together at Burnips United Methodist Church. Rest in Peace, Jim
