“ "To all of Jaxon's family, friends, and everyone he had an impact on, I am truly sorry for the loss of Jaxon Brower. He was one of my best friends, and a member of my art class. He was always a funny guy: cracking jokes, smiling, and laughing. He brought grins to everyone's faces wherever he went, and will certainly be remembered for his sense of humor. He was very caring, and was concerned about all of his friends and family. All of his family and friends are in my thoughts, prayers, and heart. Rest In Peace, Jaxon!! I love you."

“ "I went to school with Jaxon and he was one of the funniest people you'll ever meet. When ever I would wake up in the morning I wouldn't really want to go to school, I'd think of Jaxon and how I wanted to hear jokes from him or see him do something funny and then my mind would change and I would want to go to school."

“Jaxon was a great kid! He was fun, full of energy, and always had a smile on his face! I don't think I ever saw him mad. He loved reading funny joke books and sharing them. He had lots of friends and was quick to cheer his friends up when they were down. I was blessed to be his 4th grade teacher. He will always have a special place in my heart! I can't imagine the pain of losing him. I am keeping his family in my prayers.”
