“My thoughts and prayers are with you Grace and Jon and also with your entire family. I pray for peace and comfort during your days to come with the absence of your mother. Grace, I think of you and pray for safe travels for you and Fred. May God's love embrace you during this time. Love you so much and miss you terribly in our everyday lives. Your parents were a true blessing to your entire family and the community. Your mother will be sadly missed.”
