“ I'll always remember Jeff's kindness when my daughter died in 1985. A fellow ZPS employee, Jeff offered me use of his conversion van during the week of the funeral to help transport my family during their stay here. It was very helpful. In the office, Jeff did a great impression of basketball shoes squeaking on the court, only to have the lengthy game end with a 2-point margin. He wasn't a big fan of the game! Rest in peace, Jeff. ❤️
