May 21, 1958 - November 18, 2017

Jeffrie Myrick, age 59 of Holland passed away Saturday, November 18, 2017. He is survived by his wife of 36 years, Suzy Bush-Myrick; his sister Dolly and Jay Kloosterman of Zeeland; brothers-in-law Bob Rigterink of Zeeland, Charlie Bush, Max (Lynette) Bush of Holland, Jim Bush of Rockford, Tedd (Sue) Bush of Hamilton and their beloved friend Ken Everitt. He was preceded in death by his parents Louie and Eva Myrick, siblings: Jim Myrick and Bonnie Rigterink; sister-in-law Belle (Tudy Bush) Bailey; mother-in-law Myra Bush and nephews: Jimmy John Rigterink and Steve Kloosterman. Jeff loved the outdoors and enjoyed deer hunting and fishing. He twice had the opportunity to go to Salcha, Alaska to visit his buddy Grant and that beautiful wilderness lived in him forever. Jeff was a diesel mechanic at Ryder Truck until 1997 when his back injuries disabled him. Through all his pain for so many years he still loved life and laughed a lot. He fought the cancer with all his strength, but sadly lost his battle. A special thanks to the Doctors at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit for all you did for him the last 2 years. Visitation will be 2-4 p.m. Sunday, November 26, 2017 at Langeland-Sterenbergh Funeral Home, 315 East 16th Street, Holland. The funeral service will be 1:00 p.m. Monday, also at the funeral home. Interment will be in Pilgrim Home Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be given to the family to assist with funeral expenses. www.angelandsterenbergh.com
