“ Jerry Alferink was a profoundly good man and a solid, advocating, and mentoring presence for me through and following my ordination into the Christian Reformed Church in Classis Zeeland in 1996.

Back then, he was wise and weathered, and a man of character and conviction. Jerry was almost as tough and leathery almost as he was tenderhearted.

Like all true pastors, Jerry loved the Church no matter what - sometimes more than it loved him. I count him as one of 3 elder pastors I have been able to admire in my lifetime who "knew his own stuff". During my time of knowing him, he was genuine and authentic and was a treasured presence during my formation as a pastor.

My condolences to his family.

Please know I give thanks for the gift of this man's presence in my life. I am a better person and pastor for having known him.
