“Some of my fondest memories of Johnny was when I was a kid and my dad, "Uncle Harry" would take me to Bostwick Lake. Picnics, fishing & swimming every summer at aunt Cel's and ice fishing in the winter. One memorable time was a Fourth of July. All of us kids camped out in a tent the night before. Johnny, Jerry, Uncle Sal & my dad lit off some fireworks next to the tent while we were all sleeping. Then there were many Sunday afternoons they would all come over to my dads to play cards and eat kiebasa, rye bread and drink beer. He was a good man and we will miss him dearly. Our sincere condolences. Harry & Janie Kozal”
