“ *"The tide recedes, but leaves behind
Bright seashells on the sand.
The sun goes down but gentle warmth
Still lingers on the land.
The music stops and yet it lingers on
In sweet refrain.
For every joy that passes
Something beautiful remains.

“I was tremendously sorry to hear about John's passing. He was one of the most unique and fun people I ever knew. John always made me laugh and had the most interesting insights on the world we share. I will cherish the memory of a wonderful dinner party my wife and I held where John and Judy attended. So many of our insights into friendships are not able to be put into words that do their memory justice so I won't try. I will only suffice to say that I was enriched by knowing John and will remember him always. -Jim and Paula Wolters”

“My sympathy to all the family. How could one forget his hurrying from one need to another at CTC. May God be the comfort to all who mourn his death.”

“John was a believer in it's not what you say that people remember it's how you make them feel. My favorite line I stole from John long ago was "I'll get a guy right on that." My wife feels like she has a service department at her call when I reply "I'll get a guy right on that." I learned so much from John over the years.”
