“ This is sad news. I have many happy memories of Joyce. She was always so positive and happy. I loved her laugh. She was supportive and encouraging. I will always remember her fondly. May she rest in peace and rise in glory.

“ Joyce was always special to Roger and me. I remember how Joyce always appreciated Roger's sermons and his yellow tie, her favorite color.

I remember how she loved to sing her favorite hymns, entirely by memory, just praising God with a heart full of love. She had a very giving spirit making dozens of chocolate chip cookies for the Black Hills children once a month for many years. We give thanks for her love and generosity. May God's comfort and peace be with you all.

“ One of my favorite memories of Joyce is how happy and pleased we both were when our respective grandchildren, Mitch and Jordan, began dating seriously. We kidded about how much fun it would be to be the grandmothers of the bridal couple some day! Our predictions came true, and we celebrated the wedding together! Peace and grace to you Joyce!
