“ Holy redeemer classmates cared for each other and knew each other because it was a small enrollment. Ray and I class of 64 knew Judy. Ray and I were in her husband Jim class. I remember him well as I came as a freshman and needed help because of polio disability. Jim was one of the first to welcome me and help me up all those stairs. We were privileged to be in traverse where our oldest daughter Ramona lived with her family. Jim and Judy always said to go over so one day we all went. Jim was sitting in the porch and tears of happiness came down his face. Judy and Jim took the children downstairs to thei toy.chest and gave them toys to play with and take home. We were invited back but alas deaths in my family prevented it. I was thinking of Judy a couple days ago as she was fronds with my friend Jennifer bly white . Truly a life well spent when a distant classmates still have treasured thoughts of a couple. Shalom. Ray and Chris howay fejedelem
