“I loved working on a couple of church committees with your mom. She was always so upbeat and cheerful and impacted many with her bright smile and faith. She was so kind to my mom when they were both at Sugar Creek in Bradenton. We all had high regard for your mom. She will be missed.”

“Dear Jim and Jamie, We are so sad for this loss. Your mother was extremely kind and gracious person. Her love for her family was so clear. I know her faith was a testimony to everyone who spent time with her. I know she will be watching from her heavenly place and cheering us on. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you. Much love, Kari and Peter”
