“ Sorry to hear this news. Our loss. I met Julie at Kenco. Very nice person. She trained me to do her job and moved to another job and wanted to come back. It worked out great. I had another offer.

“ Julie was a good neighbor. Right after I moved in to my condo, she brought over a plate of treats. She often shared goodies with me. I will miss her.

“ I am so saddened to hear this news. Julie was a junior or senior in high school when I met her at First Reformed Church in Zeeland in 1975. She had the voice of an angel, just like her mom. She was a lot of fun and mischievous in so many ways. May she rest in peace and rise in glory.

“ Julie was a good neighbor. Often we talked to each other from our decks. I remember the chicken soup she made for us from her mother's recipe. She came over on an icy morning to help pick up my husband from a fall picking up the news paper. She brought us a grabber later that day, and I think of her every time I use it. She will be missed.
