

June Rengo

July 15, 1933 - November 29, 2024

June Carr Rengo, age 91, passed away peacefully on November 29, 2024, in Zeeland, Michigan. Born in Greenville, South Carolina, to Raymond and Ruth Harper Carr, June's life was one filled with warmth, love, and a vibrant spirit.

June graduated from Durham High School and attended Hollins College for two years before marrying Michael Davis in 1953. After Michael's Army service, they settled in Flint, Michigan, where they raised five children and became deeply embedded in the community. June's involvement in organizations such as the First Presbyterian Church Circle, the Junior League of Flint, the 20th Century Club, and the Shakespeare Club reflected her passion for learning, service, and connection.

June and Michael lived in the Western Hills subdivision, where they forged lifelong friendships. After being widowed, June met her second husband, Raymond Rengo, during the prime of her life. Together, they embarked on a new chapter in Traverse City, Michigan, where June embraced an active lifestyle. She became a dedicated member of the Traverse City Golf and Country Club's "18 Holers" and performed in charity events with the Traverse City Minstrels. June and Ray's adventurous spirit took them on travels, including a memorable trip to China.

Following Ray's passing, June remained in Traverse City for many years. Her home became the heart of family gatherings, especially during the holidays. She was a passionate bridge player, an accomplished master gardener, and an avid golfer. June's meticulous cross-stitching and legendary fruitcakes brought joy to her loved ones, creating cherished traditions.

June was predeceased by her parents, her brother, her first and second husbands, a stepdaughter, and two grandsons. She is survived by her five devoted children: Deb (Bob) Fisher, Melissa Zandler, Rebecca Davis, Boe (Laura) Davis, and Jennifer (Bill) Thomas; three stepchildren; Rebecca Rengo, Amy Rengo (Charlie Brooks), and Lisa George; nine grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren. She spent her final years surrounded by care and comfort at the Royal Atrium in Zeeland, Michigan.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Traverse City Symphony Orchestra, the Women's Resource Center of Traverse City, or Faith Hospice of Byron Center, Michigan.

A celebration of June's remarkable life will be held in the summer of 2025, where family and friends will gather to honor her legacy of love, laughter, and a life well-lived. www.yntemafh.com
