“With sadness I learned of Ken's death. It's been many years but I do remember family picnic's at the park when we were very young. I think it was cousin Judy who brought the big watermelon and it slipped out of her hands and "splat" all over the ground. Ken and others scrambled to grab the pieces telling us it was "okay" and the broken pieces were still eaten by all. Those were fun times. May God keep your family in his tender loving care. You are in our thoughts and prayers. God Bless.”
