To know Kimberlie was to love. She gave of herself freely to others and was truly selfless. She was gifted with words, the arts. She enjoyed the outdoors, reading and cooking. She was known as the “fixer” by her grandchildren, and genuinely cared for them. Kimberlie used her gifts and talents to bless people, help others understand matters of faith, and to be an encourager. She was loved and will be dearly missed.

She is survived by her husband, Nouredine Boutahar; daughter, Heather (Cory) Keesler; son, Brad (Chelsea Durall) Fisher; son, Kurt (Melissa Reeves) Fisher; grandchildren, Seth Keesler, Regan Keesler, Hailey Jane, Addison May, River Dando, Waylon; sister, Cindy Kleibocker; father, Orin Pelto; and former husband, Dan Fisher.

Visitation is 5:00-7:00 pm Friday, September 16, 2022, at Langeland

Beautiful video and the music is so very much Kim. I'm Blessed to have one of her art canvases hanging in my home. Our daily chats are all ready missed. She was Beautiful inside and out and loved everyone deeply. Heaven is even greater with you in it.

This is sad news. Unfortunately, the last time I saw Kim was at our graduation. We had a lot of fun while participating in mutual interests in school. My condolences and prayers for her family and friends. Kim, Rest In Peace and Love!

“ Kim has not only been a close friend, but she's been like a sister. We both loved Thrift shopping, sharing a lot of laughs along with counting our many blessings with our beloved husband and children. Love is too mild of a word for what our beloved Kim shared with the world. Her beauty came from her soul and shined brightly even as she was going to be with Jesus. There will never be another like her.

“ Nour, Heather, Brad and Kurt (aka Kurtis Mathis) --- Your mom's / Kim's smile always entered a room first. Then she filled it with her warm soul. You never had to worry about what to talk about, because she kept the conversations and laughter going. I am really glad that we reconnected several years ago and that I was able to call her friend. Grief is never ending, but love walks with us - so let love guide you on the journey. Hugs and love MeLissa Olson
