“ My dog Champ and I walked by the Conroy home every day on our 2 mile walk. As we drew near, I would release Champ from his leash, and he would race across the yard, fly up the steps. Larry would greet him with, “ What are you doing up here?” Then he would proceed to enter the house and get out a bag of treats. Many days, we would join Larry on the porch, sit in the sun and enjoy looking at the lake. Champ would rest his chin on the porch rail.

Larry was faithful and visiting Shirley every other day and enjoying lunch with her. When they recently celebrated their anniversary, he bought her a card, candy and flowers.

I so enjoyed spending time visiting and champ, could easily stay and visit all day. Please know you have my deepest sympathy for your loss. He will be missed.
