“ Dear Della, We're sending our sympathy in the loss of your dear sister Leone. Your family has added so many wonderful memories to my (Jean's) childhood! Thankful to God we will see our loved ones again but yet the grief and loss is so deep. Even though we know she is rejoicing and dancing on streets of gold, we know you will miss her dearly.

“ One of our greatest memories of Aunt Leone is when her and Aunt Mary Leeuw came to Florida for their brother Jay Nykamp's wedding (our dad).

It was dark out and Aunt Leone and Mary had a rental car. Aunt Leone was never afraid to try anything! Her and Aunt Mary took that car over the curb and went up and down the hills in the trees to shine deer! Us kids had gulf carts and could hear them both laughing so hard it made us laugh until we cried. It was so much fun! Aunt Leone always knew how to have a good time.

It is sad to see Aunt Leone leave, but we believe she is blessed to be going home to see everyone she misses.

Missed and Loved very much!

“ Leone always added a lot of fun to our occasions. It was such a treat to have visits from the Vanden Bergs and Della when we lived in the south. When you miss her, think of the happy times. She was a beautiful lady and her love for our Lord was obvious. May God comfort your hearts.
