He is survived by his children Kendall (Jan) Koopman of Dexter, Michigan, and Lori (Tom) Duda of Rochester Hills, Michigan. He leaves behind four grandchildren; Chelsea (Zachary) Crawford, Patrick Koopman, Taylor Duda, and Megan Koopman (Cameron Clark).

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 64 years, Marjorie (Hook) Koopman; his parents, the Rev. August and Bertha (Ramaker) Koopman; his stepmother, Jeanette (Bolt) Koopman; and his sister and brother-in-law, Janet and Dr. David Van Dyke.

Koopman graduated from Central College and Western Theological Seminary, and later earned a master's degree from Northern Baptist Seminary. In 1957 he married Marjorie Hook of Aplington, Iowa, and together they served three congregations: Faith Community Church in Stickney, Illinois; Emmanuel Reformed Church in Morrison, Illinois; and Christ Community Church in Pompano Beach, Florida. He subsequently was employed for four years as the associate editor of the Church Herald and for 21 years as Secretary for Mission Information for the Reformed Church in America.

He authored 15 books in the religious field, including the Beauty Care series of Bible Studies; and Taking the Jesus Road: The Ministry of the Reformed Church in America among Native Americans. In Holland he was a member of HASP, the Evergreen Chorale, the Singing Dominies quartet, and the reACTORS theatre.

In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may given in Rev. Koopman's honor to Native American ministries of the Reformed Church in America at Reformed Church in America, Attn: Finance Dept., 4500 60th St SE, Grand Rapids, MI 49512 or online at www.rca.org/give/.

The family wishes to celebrate LeRoy's new life through Jesus Christ with a memorial service to be held at 11:00 AM, Saturday, April 26, 2025, at Christ Memorial Church, 595 Graafschap Rd. Holland, MI 49423.

Burial to take place at Lakewood Cemetery.
