“ "To the dear family of Lillian Slenk I had the privilege to meet your cherished mother, grandmother, aunt and friend by companionship visits through Hospice care early this summer. My weekly visits were delightful. Even though one phrase was prominent, there was a strong knowledge of Hymn singing left deep within her. By Divine blessing her singing ability came forward at the end of a prayer. I said, what a friend we have in Jesus! And broke into that song and to my complete amazement she joined in each verse (at least the ones I could recall). Next visit and at least 7 following, I brought a hymn book and we delighted in singing together after reading her daily devotional book. The time I remember the best was the day we sang It is well with my Soul. on the refrain she even added the echo! It was very well with her soul and she is now rejoicing with Jesus in the heavenly realms. Even though she responded to everything with, I feel like a King. There was different intonation in her voice and facial expressions that were precious and loving. Her Spirit was alive and well and now is on the other side of the veil with Jesus and Her Heavenly Father. I'm sorry to have missed her memorial service, we were visiting our son and family out of state. I think I saw her the day before she passed and I didn't think I would see her again on earth. Today I visited her Dining table friends and they also have such fond memories of Lillian's sweet and classy personality. She never complained and had a positive attitude with her smile. Memories of Lillian make me so glad I met her. Her spirit is a great example of how to BE. Eloise"

“I am so saddened to hear of Lil's passing. She was a familiar face in my growing up years in Holland. She is fondly remembered for being a kind woman and friend to my parents. She will always be remembered for being part of the "Brat Fry" gang. Rest in the arms of Jesus, Mrs. Slenk! Marla Ribbens Hoving”

“I met Lillian in October of 2012 when I got locked out of my apt. at Lakeside Vista and she got help for me. She and Jo Slenk were friends and I got to know them very well. Lillian's smile was the greatest , if you were having a bad day her smile made it all better. " I feel like a king " for having met her.”
