“ Linda was my sitter from the time my kids were born till they started school. She also took care of my nephew . They were an awesome pair, and was such a caring sitter. She fought hard when cancer came calling and took the upper hand. She was our kids 2nd mom for say. Her kids and mine were around same age. Remember when they lived next to her parents then moved to Washington house. She will be missed. R.I.P. little lady.
