“Every child that went through her door was fortunate. Every fellow staff member had a supportive, knowledgeable and fun colleague. Her face would light up whenever she talked about her family. I am grateful for the time I had with such a genuine and delightful soul. Safe travels my friend, you were a gift.”

“Wow I'm deeply sad by the lost of this kind hearted woman the way she would light up people with in seconds of talking to her that was a gift. I'm not the most approachable person she didn't care right up and make me smile she had a way of making the grumpiest person happy. It's been 7 years since I met her with my youngest going into kindergarten she stayed with him for six full years he had so much trouble learning to read and she wouldn't give up. And now my youngest enters kindergarten this year and of course the very first person we see is Miss Bowers and she grabbed him up knew my name knew he was Dayton's brother and made him so comfortable I know she would have taught him to read too our schools will never be the same without her she will truly be missed thank you Lisa,”
