“ "Lisa and her sister Bernie were our best friends growing up. We did everything together and made some great memories. We were always giving each other advice and helping one another through difficult times. We were like sisters that shared everything together. We shared our first experiences at love, what we wanted to be when we grew up, where we wanted to live, how many children we would have. Anything was possible as we fantasized of how our life would turn out. We shared a special bond between each other unfortunately life goes on and we grew apart as we got older. One thing that will never change is our great memories of our childhood that we will always cherish and never forget. Lisa we are going to miss you and you will forever be in our hearts. We will be looking forward to the day when we can see you and be with you again in heaven. WE LOVE YOU! Lisa and Cathy (Disney)"

“I met Lisa late Spring of last year. It was instant mutual attraction. I sensed that she was going through a confusing period in her life. Glad to learn that she figured it out. Our paths crossed for a reason. I believe that they will again someday. Until then my friend. May God Bless your Sweet Soul”

“To the Family and Friends of Lisa,We send our deepest condolences for your sudden and tragic loss. Whether your relationship to Lisa was as a Mother, Father, Sister, Brother, Niece, Nephew, Husband or Friend, the one word that could easily be used to describe Lisa was Giver.Throughout her much too brief life on Earth, she gave so much of herself to friends, family and even strangers. She unselfishly provided care and love to so many people in their time of need, both in her personal life as well as in her work life.Her giving nature was also evident in her relationship with her dogs. Ripley, Hunter, Quincy, Mannie, Megan, Bear, Ezra and Macy were all priorities with Lisa, as they were cared for and loved as they were her children.Lisa is now among her loved ones that passed before her. May she rest in peace knowing that she had such a positive impact on the lives of so many.Sincerest Condolences,Michael and Lori Miscovich”

“*My Beloved sister Lisa,
You are and will always be loved and missed dearly. The pain we feel over your passing is nothing compared to the joy we will have, when we see you in heaven again. For we who depart this world knowing our eternity is secure through the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ, there is no weeping or sorrow. Still, as we attend the funeral of a believer, though it may be a celebration of a life well-lived, we will mourn and miss our loved one until we are once again reunited with them in Heaven. Lisa
I have been blessed to call you my sister and also my friend, I will miss you dearly unto my very end. It is hard not to grieve, for I am so very sad, but now you are free, following God's path. My beloved sister, how can I find the words to say, to tell of how, I will miss you each and every day. Heavenly Father please hear my prayer, keep my sister in your godly care.
For I know there is a time for all of us, when we must say goodbye, I will cherish your memories until the day I die. For no one will ever take your place, for my beloved sister, oh how I will miss your face. Time will move on and hearts will mend, I cry out to God, to see you again.
Rest in Peace Lisa February 14, 2019
Love your brother Raymond”*

My dear friend Steve was never more in love like he was when he met her I only wish they had more time together.
