“ "I had the pleasure of knowing Luther through Betty Ford Adventureland, at Gerber Scout Reservation. I will always remember his contagious smile as he greeted me when I came over to Cub side looking for my sons. He seemed to always be there and willing to help me no matter where he was headed. I know the friendship he had with my sons will also be missed. He was a good example to the cubs and lived the scout law as a true Eagle. I wish you Gods peace as you go forward, I will keep you in my prayers."

“Luther made a huge impression on me as a fellow staff member at Gerber last summer. That day Luther carried all the boxes up to trading post to get them out of the office, and then came back to sweep the floors for me, and it was his day off! I will always remember him for his kind heart and unrequested willingness to help me out. RIP Luther, thank you. Deb Prinz, Reservation Staff 2015”
