“As I see Lynelle's smile on her picture, I can just imagine how our mighty God impacted her life as she touched so many in her short time here on earth. I didn't know Lynelle or any of her family members personally. I only knew her through the words of our daughter, Kati Whitmyer. Lynelle and Kati had so much in common...born the same year, graduated the same year, had loving husbands whom they had been married to for a number of years, young children, belonged to same church and involved in similar activities and same small group. They also both had serious health concerns which drew them even closer. Kati shared a lot about her friend, Lynelle to us. As a mother, I have witnessed how God gives Kati strength and a blessed heart to touch others suffering and I feel He did the same for your wife and mother...You shall always have a part of your wife and mother on the inside of you in your heart...you will always have her smile...you will always have the memories and I am sure each one of you possess your very own characteristic like her or a specific resemblance of her. You each have been blessed to call her "my high school sweetheart" or ""MOM""!!! Cherish your good days, talk about your loving mother and ask for God's help on those days when you struggle...We shall hold all of your family up in prayer...”

“To the Bell Family,I enjoyed working with Lynette at Town & Country Tel-Com. I believe I helped her to realize that being diabetic didn't mean she could not have children as I was told. God knows your heart and will comfort you,”
