“ *"My Christmas card returned to me, and that is how I found Out that my dear friend Mae had gone to Glory. We are the same age and been friends since before marriage to best friends, Pete and Don Kraker. We moved to Phoenix, Az. in 1957 but always saw Pete and Mae whenever we retuned to Mi. to visit. Don and Pete proceeded Mae and I to heaven , and now I am the only survivor of all our group of friends. Nels and Jenny Gemmen, Bud and Peggy Bosch, Ray and Ethel Wallinga , Pete and Mae and Don and Harriet Kraker. Such fun we had for so many years and all will one day meet again. “Dear friends and family, I grieve the loss of sweet Aunt Mae. Not too long ago, she called me on my cell phone at work. Must have been a year or two ago. I answered. She said, Hello, Corliss? Do you know who this is? She sounded like all her sisters and I knew she was the only one living. I knew her immediately even though we had not spoken in years. We chatted for a few minutes and she said good bye. I'll always remember that call. I'll see you soon, Aunt Mae.”
