“ Memories! This photo brings to mind so many of them. Uncle John & Aunt Hattie cared for Marcia in their home for her early years, doing so very lovingly & carefully. I remember Uncle John especially holding Marcia in his arms, singing to her, talking to her & trying to make her a mile or laugh. What a beautiful sound that was both of them laughing & enjoying each other, rest in peace Marcia. Go with God!

“ I was a care giver of Marcia's . She showed me what Gods miracles truly looked like. She had inspired us in ways no one could truly understand. When Marcia would laugh it was a laugh that had to be shared by all. No one truly knew what we all were laughing about, but Marcia knew. She will be missed but will always remember gods little angel.. Rest in peace now Marcia. Hugs, love, and kisses
