“ *"I am saddened by the loss of your mother. She will be dearly
missed.
She always talked about her children and grandchildren.
I am comforted to know she was ready to meet the lord and be
with her husband.
Janie Bosch friend of Marcia's."*

“ "Dear Van Orman Family- I am sorry for your loss. I worked with Marcia for several years at Colonial Charm in Galesburg. I have very fond memories of her and will always remember her kindness, compassion, strong faith, decorating style, and what a fabulous cook she was! I make recipes for my family on a regular basis from the cookbook she published (Country Cupboard). She will truly be missed :)"

“I met Marcia while I lived at Lakeside Vista. She taught me to play Skipbo. I never won a game with her but it was fun to visit while we played. She will be missed”
