“I spent many wonderful summers at the cottage with Marcia and her family. Josephine and I have been friends longer than I can remember, and Marcia was like a bonus grandma for me. She will be dearly missed by everyone that knew her.”

“Marcia became a dear friend of mine in the last few years as I dated her wonderful son Alan. She never missed a concert or play for my son Nick...she cherished the role as a fill in grandmother for him. With her love of music, theater and of course a good meal she quickly became part of my family. She was fun, kind, easy going and always smiling. And what a great sense of humor! We will all miss you dearly Marcia. My condolences to her family. What a terrific lady.”

“Mrs. Weener was my 4-H sewing instructor and my best friend, Mary's mother. She had a heart of gold and the patience of Job! Always wore a smile and just a spunky lady with good humor. My thoughts are with the family. Rest in Peace Ms. Marcia and be united again with your loving husband.”
