“ "I was honored to get to know Margaret where she was living - she faithfully attended the Bible class and was always so pleasant and considerate. The first word I thought of to describe her was "unassuming" so it was remarkable to see that as the first characteristic listed in the newspaper and mentioned at her funeral service. I miss her smile and I will be praying for all of her loved ones as they move forward at this time of loss. Sincerely, Cindy N, Chaplain"
