“ "My sympathy and prayers go with all of you as well as the the thoughts and prayers of my children. We all loved your mom. She was such a wonderful example of a true christian woman. We really enjoyed the times that she would help in the fower shop for the holidays. I can only imagine the joy she is having now in heaven. Love to all of you, Kathy and family"

“Remembering all of you in thought and prayers during this difficult time. So glad the GEMS got to sing Christmas carols to her this past season, we were truly blessed. Keep memories of your mom close, praying they will be a source of comfort along with the promise of our Lord to never leave you alone.”

“Dear Children of my Aunt Marg, You have my thoughts and prayers as you lay your mother to rest. She was very close in age to me, her oldest niece. We are 6 years apart and so we grew up together in Muskegon. She will be missed. Love Dee (Delores Wagenmaker) Diephouse Wolffis.”
