“ My Aunt Margaret always made me feel good when I was with her. She was the most positive person alive. I will miss her and her spunk.

“ "Thou art altogether lovely, my love; there is no spot in thee." Song of Solomon
My husband and I had the opportunity to meet Marge when we attended a dinner prepared for us to meet her family. She was delightful in every way! She had a welcoming spirit, a truly kind heart, and a great loveliness all about her. How we enjoyed her! The Bible tells us that if you are strong you may make it to 70. If you are mighty you may make it to 80. And I would say if you are altogether lovely in the eyes of the Lord and at work shepherding others and caring for them, you may make it to 90 plus. Marge was "altogether lovely" and so she did not depart until 93. We know that this precious saint is rejoicing in the presence of Christ and we look forward to seeing her again.

“ I am so grateful to have known Marge for a short time while she lived at Royal Atrium Inn. She was hard to track down for a visit because she was always with friends and family - her relationships with loved ones meant the world to her! She had the most beautiful smile and faced her difficult circumstances with grace and courage. Praying for Marge's many loved ones - Sincerely, Cindy Nyhoff, chaplain
