

Marilyn E. Baruth

March 10, 1939 - July 28, 2016

Marilyn Baruth (Easley) died peacefully in her own home on July 28th, 2016. She was 77. Marilyn was preceded in death by her husband, Robert (Bob) Baruth, and her parents, Daryl and Edna Easley. Marilyn is survived by her daughter, Nancy E. Delaney (Jerry) and two grandchildren, Jerard Delaney III and Colleen Delaney. Marilyn is also survived by one sister, Sheryl Wachter (Dr. Ronald Wachter) and three nephews, Ryan Wachter (Madeleine), Kirk Wachter and Mark Wachter (Laura). Marilyn was born in Alexandria, Nebraska and was raised on a farm where she learned the values of hard work, helping others, and appreciating nature. She and Bob moved to Lincoln, Nebraska shortly after getting married and lived there close to 30 years. She and Bob moved to Holland, Michigan 20 years ago to be closer to Nancy and her family who live in Monroe, Michigan. Marilyn wanted to be remembered for her passion for serving others. She had a giving heart and gentle spirit. She lived her faith every day whether it be through helping a neighbor, caring for her pet rabbits, tending her yard, preparing crafts for her church's children's ministry or volunteering at Hospice of Holland.

It was Marilyn's preference to be cremated and to forego any type of formal service. Instead, she asked that her friends and family reflect on personal memories of her and carry forward the desire to serve others. Those wishing to honor her through a memorial donation are encouraged to contribute to Hospice of Holland or Harderwyk Church. Marilyn's time on earth is over, "Well done good and faithful servant" (Matthew 25:23)
