

Mark Eskridge

November 15, 1958 - January 18, 2018

Mark Alan Eskridge, age 59, resident of Grand Haven, passed away on January 18, 2018. Mark was born and raised in Garden City, MI. He was the most loving and caring towards everyone. Mark was the guy that was there, no matter what. He was preceded in death by his parents, Van and Ruby Eskridge, and his brother-in-law, David Pierson. He is survived by his wife of almost 19 years, Brenda Eskridge; his two children, Joe Eskridge and Jessica Eskridge, as well as his step children, Sara (David) Loggins, and Jessica (Tyler) Trusty. Mark also leaves behind his four grandchildren, Jaxon, Journee, Logan, and Harper. Mark requested no funeral. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the American Stroke Association in Mark's name.

“I may not have known Mark personally but he still left quite an impact on my life, his daughter Jessica. I have known her since she was in elementary school. She was the sweetest girl and adorable too. Thank you Mark for letting me be a small part of your life through your daughter. God bless and may you know peace now.”
