August 16, 1943 - April 25, 2025

Marla Faye Van Iddekinge passed away peacefully on April 25, 2025. Marla was born in 1943 in Graafschap, Michigan to Steve and Katherine (Hulst) Langejans. She graduated from Holland Christian High School in 1961 and Calvin College in 1967. In 1969, Marla married Harold (Herb) Van Iddekinge of Detroit. The couple settled in Holland where both taught in the Holland Christian School system for over 30 years.

Marla taught preschool and was beloved by many children and their families. She was a long-time member of Faith Christian Reformed church and was actively involved in ministries such as Coffee Break, New Focus, and Stephen's Ministry. Upon retiring, Marla helped start the Holland Free Health Clinic, where she worked and volunteered for more than a decade.

Marla was an avid walker and played tennis for many years. She and Herb enjoyed camping and took the family on many trips around the country, and in later years spent their summers at the Christian Reformed Conference Grounds. She loved her family and friends, and we will remember Marla's positive attitude, caring spirit, and strong faith.

Marla was preceded in death by her parents, husband Herb Van Iddekinge, parents-in-law Henry and Jeanette Van Iddekinge, stepmother Gertrude Langejans, brother Junior Langejans, and sisters-in-law Sharon and Yolanda
