“ "Our sincere sympathies are extended to Aunt Lo and our cousins and their families, and to our uncles and aunts. We were not able to attend Uncle Mart's visitation or funeral, but were so thankful that my parents were able to come from Lynden to be with the family. May God continue to comfort you during this time. Our love and prayers are with you."

“ Dear Stegink family,I am sorry to hear of the passing of your dear husband, father, and grandfather. A number of years ago, Rev. Stegink was pastor of Lincoln Center Christian Reformed Church - the little country church in Iowa that our family attended. He was a faithful shepherd of our congregation, and Lois was a perfect helpmate for him. We loved your family, and we were very sad when you decided to move to Falmouth, Michigan. Please know that you will be remembered in thought and prayer during these difficult days, weeks, and months ahead.”

“Dear Stegink Family, I was lucky enough get to know Martin, Lois, Steve, Tom, Phil, and Lisa Stegink when they were living in Iowa. I was a first year general and vocal music teacher in the Dike Community School. The Stegink family began inviting me for Sunday meals and gradually made me feel a part of their family. Steve was already off at college when I arrived. The younger three siblings were great students and singers in my choral groups and classes. As Tom was wise beyond his years, he became a true friend to me like the younger brother I never had. I knew that his agile mind quick wit would serve him well in life. Phil was always kind and upbeat and Lisa was very quick to catch on to whatever we did in music class. Martin was always laughing and telling stories while Lois always saw that I was well fed and happy. For that, I want to thank you all. It was a great honor to sing at the weddings of Steve and Tom as they embarked on the next phase of their lives. Please know that my thoughts are of you and the beautiful memories I have of our time together. May you find comfort in your memories of Martin with his joyful spirit that made us smile or sometimes just shake our heads. I wish you all peace and comfort in the coming days and years.”
