“ Miss Mary is what I called her, she was the most nicest beautiful person and always hugged me and welcomed me to her home, my memory to share is that one day Miss Mary was just finishing cleaning the lens on her prescription glasses, put them on her face....and no sooner do I come by I always would give her a hug and kiss before I left out the door, she was sitting on the couch as I leaned down and gave her a hug, and as I turned to give her a kiss on the cheek, I kissed her smack dab in the middle of her lens, that she had just finished cleaning, leaving a big imprint of my kiss. We both burst out laughing! I was very blessed to meet someone special as Miss Mary, I moved far away but her and Heather will always be in my heart, I love you!

Mama Mary... my heart is sad... I know you no longer feel pain,&ik you wouldn't want everybody sad... but,this was too abrupt. Thank you for always loving me and my fam ♡ we love you & you are missed dearly
