“I had the privilege of knowing Mary in a couple of different settings - first as co-parishioners at the same church a number of years ago and then getting reacquainted at Royal Atrium Inn and Providence. I remember her a prayer warrior and also someone who always spoke highly of her husband and her family. I loved hearing her tell of her life-changing experience at a Billy Graham crusade. She was a lovely person and I am grateful to have known her. Sincerely, Cindy N, Chaplain Royal Atrium Inn”

“Marjorie Wolters wrote, "watching my sister-in-law as we double-dated, raised our families, and celebrated many highlights was always a pleasure. I'm looking forward to our heavenly reunion."”

“I will miss my dear sweet Aunt Mary. I so enjoyed our visits. We would sing, pray and read the Bible and chat about life. It was such a blessing to me. I know the angels and the Lord was with her here on earth and now she is in Glory. She would always say she was ready for Heaven but here is okay too. She taught me so much. The words that best describe her are "delightful" and "Christian". She was a faithful follow of Christ and now has heard "well done good and faithful servant". Love you Aunt Mary and I will see you in Heaven!"
