

Mary Hobeck

August 6, 1934 - October 24, 2016

Mary Hobeck, age 82, of Holland, passed away peacefully Monday, October 24, 2016 at Maple Leaf Health Care Center in Manchester, New Hampshire after living with Parkinson's for 10 years. Mary graduated from Holland High School and attended both Hope College in Holland and National Teacher's College in Evanston. She was an elementary school teacher before doing what she loved best, being a stay at home mom. Mary was a member of Third Reformed Church in Holland. In earlier years, Mary found joy in being outdoors: playing tennis, bike riding, shelling at the beach, race walking for the Senior Olympics, and being with her family. She was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother and will be deeply missed. Mary is survived by her children, Carolyn and Patrick Scholten of Hudson, New Hampshire and Marianne and Paul Miller of Delray Beach, Florida; as well as 2 grandchildren, Jacob Andrew Scholten (15) and Joshua Edward Miller (14). Also surviving are sister-in-laws Barbara Hobeck and Ruth Yeomans; several nieces and one nephew. Mary is preceded in death by her husband, Jack Edward Hobeck. A memorial service is planned for 11:00am December 29, 2016 at Third Reformed Church, 111 W 13th St., Holland. Rev. James Neevel will officiate. Burial will be in Pilgrim Home Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be given to Maple Leaf Health Care Center, 198 Pearl Street, Manchester, NH 03104 and Evergreen Commons, 480 State Street, Holland, MI 49423. Arrangements are by Langeland-Sterenbergh Funeral Home, 315 E 16th St., Holland, www.langelandsterenbergh.com.

“ "I will, forever, remember Mary. She was my "very first girl friend", going back some 75 or so, odd years. We were in Sunday School class together at Hope Church and her mom was our teacher. Those are days to remember, and even at my old age==I REMEMBER !!!! To the family, I can feel your loss. God bless you. We will join her, someday, and never again be parted."
