“ I grew up going to church get-togethers with Jim. He was my best buddy growing up. I remember all the goofy things he did that made me laugh. He would say something very dry (seeming to agree with you) and then say something opposite very tongue-in-cheek - "I suppose you could think that" and then laugh out loud. I just loved his sense of humor and his laugh. Just a one-of-a-kind light in the world. Non-judgmental and caring, and always trying to understand. It was impossible not to love him. We should all wish to be like Jim.

I am sorry that Lisa, you have to go on without Jim. /// Not like you Kate who were buddies, but even I felt happier talking, being around him. 6 years younger, and he is gone, no way.

“ I shared a lifetime with Jimmy, I baby sat him when he was a little boy. He was only 2 and I loved him dearly. He walked with my daughter at graduation, read the 13th Chapter of Corinthians at Sharons Wedding. He carried the ring with my daughter as the flower girl at his Uncles Wedding. We had a Blessed life together. We prayed and cried together. We will meet again in the Kingdom. I send my Love and Prayers to all his family and friends.

“ We have so many fun memories of Jim!! From the four of us driving around together, dinners out - his favorites Fricano's and Everyday People Cafe, to his hilarious sense of humor. Our hearts are breaking. We will sorely miss him. Sending love and hugs to you Lisa.

“ Your Orange Family at TWV is with you and loves you, Lisa. You've been an example of what it looks like to keep moving forward, even in the hard moments. And you've fought fiercely for those in need. In your time of need, know that we are fighting for you. Keep those eyes fixed on Jesus. The Good Shepherd will guide you every step of the way. When you walk through the valley of the shadow, you will fear no evil, for HE IS WITH YOU.

“ Jim always encouraged me and helped me feel I was part of the group in our younger years. I REMEMBER HIM MOST FOR KISSING HIS MOM AND SISTERS ON THE CHEEK. Ten smiling and saying common lets go. ! Or doing a head count to make sure we knew where all the crew were. Always fun always responsible

“ My dear cousin, Jim, was so special. What I remember most is how easily I could talk to him about faith. I went to him whenever I had questions about bible verses I didn't understand. He was willing to spend time to make sure my questions were answered and followed up a few days later. A great man of faith. He was funny, nice, considerate, honest, loyal, and loving. I will miss him dearly. I'm sure he is in heaven.

“ We met Jim and Lisa at Ridgepoint Church where they were leading a marriage seminar. They were the perfect couple to do this! Fun, loving, Christian, and so so respectful of each other! It was obvious to everyone in attendance, that their marriage was what every couple wanted to have. We also attended Bible studies at their home, which were awesome and fun!!!! Jim led his home with such love and caring. He could have taught younger men how to treat a women the correct way and how to put the Lord first. What I can say is that he fought the good fight of life, and finished his race. Well done, Jim. Well done. 🙏🥹
