

Maxwell "Max" Ver Beek

October 15, 2008 - September 1, 2023

Maxwell "Max" Ver Beek, 14, of Holland, passed away unexpectedly on Friday, September 1, 2023.

Max was born October 15, 2008, the son of Dustin and Lindy (Vander Zwaag) Ver Beek and Amy Ver Beek. He was the twin brother of Samantha Ver Beek and also the loving brother to Brooklyn Ver Beek, Isaac Carlson and Levi Carlson. He was the grandson of Dale Ver Beek, Melvin and Lois Vander Zwaag, and Jerry and Olivia Wilson. Max was preceded in death by his Mother Lindy in 2012 and we know she welcomed him with overwhelming joy when he arrived to meet her in Heaven.

Max was a gentle, sweet, loving young man. He loved playing video games, hanging out with his friends at the Sperry Movie House and Hopcat restaurant. His favorite food was barbeque wings and a big ole' rack of ribs. He took pride in his hoodie and tennis shoe collection. Never will there ever be someone with better hair than Max, and he knew it. He loved playing basketball and golf. He was a freshman at Zeeland West High School and along with his family, a member of The Foundry Church in Zeeland.

A private memorial service will be held at the Yntema Funeral Home in Zeeland.

In lieu of memorial contributions, please take your family out and do something fun in honor of Max.

“ Max was always a good friend and a good person he would do anything for his friends, he always made the best jokes and tried to stay positive. Our last 2 years of middle school we weren't as close as we used to be, but the memories we all have from elementary to freshman year will all be cherished. I'm always going to think of the time we were playing kickball and max kicked his shoe on the roof of the school! He was a goober but a very polite young man. Praying for the Ver beek family and everyone affected. God bless all of you.

“Dustin and family,
I don't know you nor did I know Max, but I am friends and neighbors of Becky and Larry and I worked with Dale for several years at HMI. My heart is so broken for all of you, and there are no words that I can say that will make things feel better. Just know that there are so many in the community, even those who don't know you, that are lifting you up in prayer. I pray that God will bring comfort to you, and that somehow, He will give you a peace that you can't explain in the midst of the grief and pain. May you find comfort surrounding you from everyone that loves and cares for you, and in knowing that Max is with his mom and that you will see him again one day. My deepest condolences to you all.

“ We lift you all up in our prayers and thoughts. God never turns away from us and will always give you comfort and peace. People will say you have "lost" Max. That's not true. You know exactly where Max is and he's waiting for us all to join him some wonderful day. Kevin Vander Kolk and Susan Kelley

“ Dustin and family - our hearts are breaking with this very sad news. We didn't know Max or your other children but do know Mel & Lois quite well. Having worked with you at Herman Miller showed me so much - your love for your family and how much you cared for them. Please know that our love & prayers are with all of you during this time of sadness but also joy in remembering Max and how much he meant to you.
