“ My oldest sister Dean, time i was born in September she was already married and living in Michigan and her first child Gwen was born March the following year. My middle name is Gwen. Dean was always a sweet, loving and hard working person
She always made me think of our mother, she was a lot like her, she loved all her family. She'll have a special place in my heart and be missed.

I know one thing

she sure kept a clean house having kids and working my husband and I went to Michigan one time for a while and stayed with them, she had everything planned out, she and her husband would get up of morning, making coffee cook breakfast make lunch, clean dishes and kitchen then she'd set out something for supper or put something in cockpot for supper, leave for work. Every evening when she'd get home she had everything timed out, every evening she had something else to do so she would get behind. I never saw a woman who had everything planned out completely. I tried to clean and help her out. But she went right back over what I did. So I stopped. Knew she had this routine. But her houswaz so clean and never out of order

It amazed me

LoI LOVE YOU DEAN
