“ When my husband and I moved to Holland in 1987 we visited several churches. When we visited Providence Milt and Anne were the first people to welcome us. They assisted us in bringing our son to the nursery and introduced us to other young couples. We knew we had found our church home. They are the reason we are at Ridge Point today. We are currently in Honduras with a team from Ridge Point so we will not be able to personally extend our sympathy. Know that your dad was highly respected and greatly loved. We pray that you experience God’s peace and comfort as you celebrate his homecoming.

“ Great memories of Milt and I walking at the Mall together or at Menards when the mall closed down, and also having Breakfast every Tuesday at Southside Restaurant or at Jackie’s Restaurant. When Anne was living we went to Dennys every so often.
