“My mom and Myra were good friends back in the day. Mabel Sherman passed away 26 years ago already. I hope they are together again now reminiscing about the days when they hung out together. My mother always had wonderful things to say about Myra. She was very loved.”

“Although I did not know all the family, just Suze for many years, my heart goes out to each and every one of you at this time. Hard as it can be, please try to take comfort in knowing she is no longer in pain, she is with your dad and Tudy. And when the time is right, she will let you know that she is well. God bless all of you.”
