“ Nancy was part of our Saturday Stitch group that met once a month. She was a talented seamstress and quilter and handy with many crafts. She loved to travel and we all traveled together to Colonial Williamsburg and to Tennessee to the Shaker Museum. She was a great cook and we appreciated her cooking when we met at her home. She was a religious woman who applied her beliefs to her life. Always in our memories.

“ So sorry to hear of Nancy passing. I remember staying with Aunt Max and Uncle Roger's with Nancy. She was a couple years older but we hung out as kids. Always had fun at family Christmas get together's and picnics in the summer. My heart goes out to the family at this difficult time. May your memories sooth your hearts.

“ I can remember visiting my Aunt Nancy every summer growing up. We used to spend time talking on her screened-in porch while she flipped through magazines and I knit scarves. She taught me how to cut fabric and sew blankets, and would take me to local craft stores to dig through fabric bins. She loved to share her artistic gift with me and often inspired me to learn new crafting skills. She treated me like a daughter by including me in her every day activities and hobbies, letting me help her tend to her garden, joked with me about the stray cat she loved/hated living in her garage, pulled jokes on my Aunt Carol with me, always tried to find ways to make me smile, and occasionally shared some gossip late at night when all was quiet. I have very fond memories of those summer vacations in Michigan and I will miss her very much.

I've decided to plant a few trees in Michigan in her memory.

Rest in peace, Aunt Nancy.

“ I was very sad to hear of Nancy’s passing. I remember being her flower girl at your wedding and I always thought she was so beautiful and sweet. At all of our family reunions/gatherings, she and Ron were such a great couple. Prayers for you, Ron and the rest of the family. Even though we all don’t see each other much anymore, those memories have a very special place in my heart. ❤️ May God Bless You and May Your Memories Sustain You and Give You Strength, Comfort, and Peace. “ Nancy was such a bright star. She was always kind and giving, and a great role model to her niece and nephews. She loved to quilt and sew, and passed that love on to Sarah, her niece. We will miss her laughter, her courage, her positive attitude, the fun times we shared as siblings, and her love of life. She will always be remembered in our hearts. Rest in heavenly peace, Nancy. Love always, Jim, Kim, Andrew, Nathaniel, David and Sarah

I knew Nancy as part of a Stitching group that met every Saturday once a month at each member's home and I am so glad that I knew her as a friend. She was so talented as a quilter, seamstress and a maker . She lived to travel and wanted to see as much of the US and the world as she could. She was quiet , kind and wanted Peace. I knew her but not as well as some other members did as they worked with her at Trendway. She loved her job at Christ Memorial as a Woman's group planner especially her mystery trips. She was a great cook too when we met at her home. She loved her homes and looked for a few years at houses over and over before they decided on a condo. May she have heavenly peace .
