“ "Nancy texted me within the last 6 to 8 weeks telling me she was terminally ill and that Hospice had been called in. I told her I would come to visit her soon. She asked me to call first. Earlier this week I sent her a text message, and since she didn't answer, I called her and still no answer. I decided this morning to check the obituaries on-line. I was so shocked and sad to find Nancy's obituary in the paper. So disappointed I didn't follow up sooner with Nancy and so sorry I missed her memorial service. I thought I had more time to visit. I worked with Nancy in the insurance industry. She was too young to die. My thoughts and prayers are with Bruce and their extended family. Sincerely, Marti Disler"

“My heartfelt sympathy to Nancy's family at this sad time. I first met Nancy in kindergarten and we remained friends for life. I'm going to miss her dearly. Her smile and laugh were infectious in spite of the fact that she had so many serious health issues. She always wanted to know how everyone else was doing. Her love of family was evident to all who knew her. I pray for peace and comfort for her family as I am sure they will surely miss her.”
