Neil's kindness was also expressed in being willing to pitch in and lend a hand to family, neighbors, and friends. Neil expected perfection and quality in everything, his work and his personal life, followed closely by vehicle cleanliness, lawn equipment, trees, pools, boats, etc. He is survived by his wife of 42 years, Karen, their children, and grandchildren: Anna and Kurt Lehnert (Jaxtyn, Kiptyn, Swayze, Nashtyn), Chris and Katie Ruffner (Makenzie, Elliott); sister Jan and Dave Raterink, brother Eric and Jayne Ruffner, mother-in-law Pat Smith, in-laws: Chris Montgomery, Sharon Baker, Phil and Beth Smith, Nancy Tratham, and many extended family and friends.
