“ "my name is Donna Diepenhorst, I was Dicks hairdresser for years , I cut his hair last on may 7, when he missed his next apt, I began to worry, I tried to call, I was hoping to find out he had maybe received his transplant, I knew I had to find out and tonight I found this, my heart is sad, I truely enjoyed him as my client we became very close and I always tried to enlighten his spirit when I would see him, he never saw tears I had in my eyes , but they where there, I'm blessed to have gotten to know him and was able to be part of his life, he talked highly of his children and loved his grandkids, I'm so sorry for your loss, and he has been and will be missed in my chair,I know the last time I saw him he was tired of the fight , but he gave it a good fight. God bless his soul and may he now rest...Donna."
