

Nikco Bashari Walton

February 18, 1992 - April 11, 2016

Nikco Bashari Walton was born on February 18th, 1992 to Nathelle Pulley and Lamarkco Walton in Chicago, IL. He was raised in Holland, MI, where he attended school. He accepted Christ at a young age and many times after! Nikco was a great son, brother, father, and friend! He wore a great smile and had a heart of gold! Nikco departed this life on April 11th, 2016. He leaves to cherish his memories: his sons, King and Prince Walton; mother, Nathelle, and father, Lamarkco (Kamyra); a special friend and mother of his children, Dannyell; sisters, Nakeysha, Shante, Rickee, Iyana, Kassi, and Kayla; brothers, Lamarkco and Lamarkco; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends! "He was my son, so it feels too soon to say goodbye. But he lived more than most people do in the years they're given...and he left a lesson we can all take to heart about living life to the fullest! His spirit will never be forgotten."

~ Love Mom Funeral services for Nikco will be 11:30am Saturday, April 23, 2016 at Maple Avenue Ministries, 427 Maple Ave., Holland, with Rev. Denise Kingdom-Grier officiating. Visitation will be one hour prior to the service at the church.

“ "Nikco you were a great friend and a beautiful soul. Thank you for the life advice , the smiles & the laughs. The time we spent together I will cherish forever. Being parents is something we had in common and your were such a proud father and I saw the love you had for your children. Your sons have gained a guardian angel. RIP ❤️"
