“ I pastored his church from 1974-84. Norm, Marilyn and their children were a joy to know. Once I stopped at their house to change clothes for a nearby softball game. Norm answered the door. He looked like someone shot him with a scatter gun. They were processing cherries and he was covered with juice. We shared many a laugh after that. He and Marilyn were great examples of service and caring. He shared God's word via Facebook many times. When Jesus returns, great will be his reward in heaven
